

Memorandum of Understanding between

The Consejo General de la Psicología
(Spanish Psychological Association; CGP)

And

The Order of Psychologists of Albania; OPA)

The Order of Psychologists of Albania; OPA and the Consejo General de la Psicología (Spanish Psychological Association; CGP) hereby agree to work together to promote academic and professional links between the two organisations in order to contribute to the advancement of knowledge, practice and training in psychology for the benefit of the discipline and profession of psychology and for the benefit of our respective communities.

We agree to establish cooperative relations, based on the principles of mutual benefit and respect, between our two organisations.

Both organisations affirm interest in developing such a working relationship in this Memorandum of Understanding.

Following this understanding, the executives of OPA and CGP shall:

- maintain communication on matters of common concern
- seek to identify projects and activities, in which we may work together, assist or support one another, or otherwise co-operate for the betterment of psychology and the public interest.

Such projects and activities may include but not be limited to:

- support for national and international collaborative activities to promote the highest standards of psychological practice, education and research
- joint academic and professional activities, including professional meetings, symposia and workshops
- exchange of resources, products and services and relevant individual member benefits
- visiting psychologist schemes
- partnership conference exchange programs
- the development of joint policy and/or position statements.

The academic and professional activities above are to be carried out through mutual consultation and as approved by both organisations.

This agreement is entered into by both organisations in a spirit of international friendship and mutual collegial respect.

Signe on behalf of:

Consejo General de la Psicología
(Spanish Psychological Association, CGP)

Francisco Santolaya, Ph.D.
President

The Order of Psychologists of Albania; OPA

Valbona Treska
President